Minutes: In chambers telephone hearing held. No record made by agreement of counsel. John Tucker appeared for Cargill Defendants. Richard Garren and Louis Bulloch appeared for Plaintiff. Cargill Defendants presented oral motion pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 30 (b)(3)(B) to allow another method of recording Rule 30 deposition noticed by Plaintiff as video deposition and scheduled to begin June 24, 2008. Cargill Defendants proposed having second videographer present at their expense to record both the attorney conducting the questioning and the deponent. Plaintiff objected. Court grants motion. The court admonishes Cargill Defendants to insure non-intrusive, balanced video or use of video could be compromised for future proceedings. The court suggests, but does not rule, that camera be stationary with no panning. The court's ruling does not intimate any inappropriate conduct on the part of counsel for Plaintiff.
